STABLE RULES

STABLE CONDUCT (all dot points below must be adhered to at all times)

- You must follow the instructions of all QSEC staff, volunteers and all signage displayed at QSEC.
- The use of fire hoses is not permitted except in the case of an emergency.
- Please ensure enclosed footwear is worn at all times within the stable blocks.
- All aisles must be kept clear of all obstructions in case of an emergency.
- No riding is permitted in stable aisles or stalls.
- Horses should be cared for according to best accepted practice.
- Do not leave horses unattended unless within a stable.
- Stables are not to be locked whilst horses are occupying them.
- Do not tie horses to: trees; fences; the outside bars of the stables; anywhere in the stable blocks including the alleyways.
- Horses must be stabled or securely contained within portable fencing, if staying overnight.
- The use of portable fencing is allowed, however must be in an area specified by QSEC and the space used must not exceed 3m x 3m.
- Use bedding when stabling horses to ensure animal safety and welfare. This will also ensure no stains are left which could affect your bond being returned to you.
- Stables are for animal husbandry purposes only. They are not to be used for any sort of retail or human accommodation purposes.
- Remove any manure or rubbish after using the wash bays.
- If you or the event organisers call a vet onsite to treat a sick or injured horse please advise your event organiser immediately who MUST contact QSEC staff to comply with the Bio-Security Policy.
- If your horse shows any sign of sickness before arrival to QSEC, please do not bring them onsite.

CLEANING STABLES ON DEPARTURE

On departure, please remove all bedding, manure and urine/stains from the stable and dispose of the waste into the manure bays provided and ensure that the stable is closed and bolted. This includes all urine and faecal matter, twine/string/cable ties, hay and leftover bedding. There are adequate brooms available to ensure a thorough clean out. Please refer to the picture provided as an example of what constitutes a clean stable.

The stable will be inspected by QSEC staff after your departure and your bond will be refunded to you if the stable is left in a clean condition: free of all manure, bedding, urine, hay and twine/string/cable ties. Please do not place any foreign material in the manure bays.

ACCIDENTS, INCIDENTS AND DAMAGES

Please report all incidents, accidents and damages to the QSEC staff. QSEC is committed to providing a safe environment for all users. Should you observe or experience anything that you feel compromises your health and safety please report this to QSEC Management as soon as possible.

QSEC Management reserves the right to ask guests who contravene these rules and regulations or who in any other way are behaving in a manner likely to cause distress or nuisance to other visitors, to leave the grounds immediately with no refund. QSEC Management shall not be liable for any extra costs incurred by that visitor being evicted. Visitors must not remain on any part of the QSEC grounds after having been requested to leave.
